COMPLAINT- CIVIL ACTION
2-V Motor Vehicle Accident

COUNT I

1. The plaintiffs, James A. Souder and Lana J. Souder are adults, husband and wife, and reside together at RR1, Box 248 E, Sunbury, PA 17801.

2. The defendant, Alabama Motor Express, Inc., is a corporation which regularly conducts business in the City of Philadelphia, and maintains its principal place of business at 10720 East US Highway 84, Ashford, AL 36312.

3. The defendant, Eric M. Brion, is an adult who resides at P.O. Box 311223, Enterprise, AL 36331.

4. At all times relevant hereto the defendant, Eric M. Brion, was the agent or employee of the defendant, Alabama Motor Express, Inc., and was acting within the course and scope of his agency or employment.

5. On or about July 3, 2003, the defendant, Eric M. Brion, was the operator of a certain tractor-trailer combination, owned by the defendant, Alabama Motor Express, Inc., which was traveling in the left-hand lane of southbound Route 896 in Glasgow, Delaware.

6. When the defendants' vehicle reached a point north of the intersection of Route 896 and Porter Road, it was so negligently and carelessly operated that it came into a violent collision with the rear of the vehicle owned and operated by the plaintiff, James A. Souder, which had also been traveling in the left-hand lane of southbound Route 896, as a result of which the plaintiffs suffered the injuries and damages which are the subject of this action.

7. As of the time and place aforesaid, the negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the defendant, Eric M. Brion consisted of:

- a. operating his vehicle at a high and excessive rate of speed under the circumstances;
- b. following too closely behind the plaintiff's vehicle;
- c. failing to have his vehicle under proper and adequate control;
- d. violating the "assured clear distance ahead" rule;
- e. operating his vehicle without due regard for the rights, safety and position of the plaintiff herein;
- f. failing to maintain a proper lookout for road and traffic conditions; and
- g. violating the various statutes of the State of Delaware pertaining to the operation of motor vehicles on the public highways.

~~8. As a direct result of the negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the~~ defendant, Eric M. Brion, as aforesaid, the plaintiff, James A. Souder, suffered severe and permanent injuries, a severe shock to his nerves and nervous system, aggravation, acceleration and activation of any pre-existing ailments or conditions, and more particularly, but not in limitation of any other personal injuries he may have sustained, the plaintiff suffered a disruption of his autonomic nervous system, resulting in an inability to swallow solid food, a torn right rotator cuff, an ulnar neuropathy and an internal disruption of the right knee, as a result of which he suffered great physical pain and mental distress, which he yet suffers and may continue to suffer for an indefinite time in the future.

9. As a further result of the negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the defendant, Eric M. Brion, as aforesaid, the plaintiff, James A. Souder, has been and continues to be unable to attend to his normal activities and vocations, as a result of which he has sustained a loss of life's pleasures.

10. As a further result of the negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the defendant, Eric M. Brion, as aforesaid, the plaintiff, James A. Souder, has been and continues to be obliged to receive medical attention and care, and to expend various sums of money and incur various expenses in an effort to obtain a cure for his injuries, and may continue to incur such expenses for an indefinite time in the future.

11. As a further result of the negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the defendant, Eric M. Brion, as aforesaid, the plaintiffs' vehicle was severely damaged and declared a total loss, as a result of which the plaintiff has incurred additional expenses for the replacement of his vehicle.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff, James A. Souder, demands judgment against the defendants, Alabama Motor Express, Inc. and Eric M. Brion, both jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of the statutory arbitration limits, exclusive of interest, costs and attorney's fees.

COUNT II

12. The plaintiff, James A. Souder, incorporates the previous allegations of this Complaint as fully as though the same were set forth herein at length.

13. At all times relevant hereto, the defendant, Eric M. Brion, operated the vehicle owned by the defendant, Alabama Motor Express, Inc., with the full knowledge and permission of Alabama Motor Express, Inc., or as the agent or employee of the defendant, Alabama Motor Express, Inc., thereby imputing his negligence to the defendant, Alabama Motor Express, Inc.

14. Additionally, the defendant, Alabama Motor Express, Inc., was itself negligent in entrusting its vehicle to the defendant, Eric M. Brion, given his known propensities for negligence in the use and operation of motor vehicles.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff, James A. Souder, demands judgment against the defendants, Alabama Motor Express, Inc. and Eric M. Brion, both jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of the statutory arbitration limits, exclusive of interest, costs and attorney's fees.

COUNT III

15. The plaintiff, Lana J. Souder, incorporates the previous allegations of this Complaint as fully as though the same were set forth herein at length.

16. As a further result of the negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the defendants, Alabama Motor Express, Inc. and Eric M. Brion, as aforesaid, the plaintiff, Lana J. Souder, has been deprived of the assistance, companionship, society and consortium of her husband, the plaintiff, James A. Souder, as a result of the injuries which he sustained, which injuries are more particularly set forth in the First Count of this Complaint, and as a result thereof, the plaintiff, Lana J. Souder, has and may in the future be deprived of the services of her husband, James A. Souder.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff, Lana J. Souder, demands judgment against the defendants, Alabama Motor Express, Inc. and Eric M. Brion, both jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of the statutory arbitration limits, exclusive of interest, costs and attorney's fees.
